We'll break down each section, offer strategies to improve your performance, and equip you with the confidence to conquer those objective questions. Forget generic study guides; this post delivers targeted practice and insightful explanations, ensuring you understand why the correct answer is correct. Let's dive in!

Understanding the Objective PET Cambridge Exam

The PET exam assesses your English language proficiency at a B1 level according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). The objective sections, crucial for a high overall score, consist of:

Part 1: Multiple Choice Cloze: This section tests your vocabulary and grammar knowledge. You'll read a text with gaps and choose the correct word from a set of four options.

Part 2: Open Cloze: This part focuses on grammar and vocabulary in context. You'll fill in the gaps in a text with a single word.

Part 3: Multiple Matching: Here, you'll read several short texts and match them to specific prompts or questions.

Part 4: Reading: This section presents multiple-choice questions based on a longer text. This tests your reading comprehension skills and ability to infer meaning.

Part 5: Listening: This section involves listening to audio recordings and answering multiple-choice questions. It evaluates your listening comprehension skills.

Mastering these sections is essential for a strong PET score. Let's tackle each one individually with practice exercises and answers.

Objective PET Cambridge with Answers: Part 1 – Multiple Choice Cloze

Practice Question:

Read the text below and choose the best word (A, B, C, or D) for each gap.

The weather was terrible. It _____(1)_____ all day, and the wind _____(2)_____ fiercely. We decided to _____(3)_____ inside and play board games. It was a much more _____(4)_____ way to spend the afternoon than getting soaked in the rain!

1. A) rained B) rains C) is raining D) was raining
2. A) blowed B) blew C) was blowing D) is blowing
3. A) stay B) stayed C) staying D) to stay
4. A) joyful B) enjoyable C) enjoyed D) enjoying

Answers and Explanations:

1. D) was raining: The past continuous tense ("was raining") is correct because it describes an action in progress in the past.
2. C) was blowing: Similar to the previous question, the past continuous ("was blowing") is needed to describe an action happening over a period of time in the past.
3. A) stay: The infinitive "to stay" is not needed here. "Decided to + verb" is correct grammatically and logically.
4. B) enjoyable: "Enjoyable" is the correct adjective to describe the way to spend the afternoon.

Objective PET Cambridge with Answers: Part 2 – Open Cloze

Practice Question:

Fill in each gap with ONE word only.

My favourite hobby is photography. I _____(1)_____ a camera for my birthday last year, and I've been taking pictures _____(2)_____ then. I love capturing moments; _____(3)_____ makes me feel happy. I often go to the park _____(4)_____ take photos of nature.

Answers and Explanations:

1. received/got: Both words fit grammatically and contextually.
2. since: "Since" indicates a point in time in the past.
3. it/this: Both pronouns are acceptable and refer to the act of capturing moments.
4. to: "To" is needed to show purpose.

Objective PET Cambridge with Answers: Part 3 – Multiple Matching

(Note: Due to space limitations, a full multiple matching exercise cannot be included here. However, the principle involves matching short texts with headings or summaries.)

This section requires careful reading and understanding of the main idea of each text. Practice with various examples focusing on identifying keywords and central themes is key. Remember to eliminate incorrect options systematically.

Objective PET Cambridge with Answers: Part 4 – Reading Comprehension

(Note: Again, a full reading comprehension passage with multiple-choice questions cannot be included due to space constraints.)

Focus on identifying the main idea, understanding the author's purpose, and identifying supporting details. Practice actively reading and eliminating incorrect options strategically.

Objective PET Cambridge with Answers: Part 5 – Listening Comprehension

(Due to the nature of this section, providing practice questions with answers is not feasible in a written format. However, the tips below will help you approach this section.)

Practice Active Listening: Focus intently on the audio, taking notes when necessary.

Predict Answers: Before listening, skim the questions to anticipate the information you need to hear.

Eliminate Incorrect Options: After listening, carefully review the options and eliminate those that are clearly incorrect.

Use Context: The context of the audio will often provide clues to the correct answer.

Conclusion

Preparing for the objective PET Cambridge exam requires focused practice and a strategic approach. By understanding the format of each section and using the strategies and examples provided in this post, you'll be well-equipped to improve your performance significantly. Remember to practice regularly using official Cambridge materials and past papers for the most effective preparation. Good luck!
